

Productivity Study

Departmental-Level Productivity Assessment

including individualized workload unit descriptions, productive/workload staffing targets and paid staffing targets.

Performance Targets for each measurable department through an in-depth analysis of the comparative data and historical performance.

Comprehensive Report with methodology, findings, and explanations of recommendations that will assist hospital departments in their desire to improve and achieve best practice performance.

Global Productivity Standards that will drive the labor management improvement process.

Ensure your team is set-up to meet their performance goals!

Contact us today!

www.ruralMED.com
solutions@ruralmed.net